

SATURDAY SQUAD

Video link: <https://youtu.be/MXC-LbSpC7g>

SATURDAY SQUAD was formed in 2016 and it has 3 members. Its repertoire combines perfectly all music styles from old to new ones (swing, bossa nova, vals, blues, raggaie, rock'n'roll, funk, disco, r&b, jazz, rumba, salsa, country, modern). "Saturday Squad" performs at various venues in Bucharest and Constanta such as private events or famous music clubs and pubs.

TORRA (TEODORA SECUI), the band's lead singer, is a former contestant of the "Voice of Romania", and during the show, in 2012, she was part of Loredana Groza's team. She gained notoriety after the show and this helped her perform with various bands and artists from Romania.

IULIAN ENE, the keyboard player, has played music since he remembers and studied Music Conservatory in Constanta and has a master's degree in Theatre. He is a versatile piano/keyboard player performing different various genres of music. Iulian is a very good sight reader and also works as an accompanist at "University of the Arts Ovidius".

CRISTIAN ZAVAL, the band's drummer, inherited the passion for music from his mother, who is a traditional Romanian singer. Cristian studied music at "University of the Arts Ovidius" from Constanta and has been playing in cover bands for more than ten years.