

TRIO DREAM

Trio Dream was formed in 2011, when Alina Dinca and Alex Baroc, the two vocalists, came up with the idea of forming an acoustic group.

Lucian Stana, the pianist of the band, has an astonishing experience of over 10 years in the Romanian music industry. After finishing the National University of Music in Bucharest, he gathered a great number of prizes at several national and international contests, followed by a large number of collaborations with some of the greatest artists in Europe.

Alex Baroc, a well known pop singer in Romania, made a name for himself after appearing in the tv show "The Voice of Romania". He also finished the National University of Music, in Bucharest. Moreover, he is known for his numerous prizes, won at several Vocal Jazz contests.

Alina Dinca is a Vocal Coach at a famous Music Academy in Bucharest. She is also one of the finalists of the first edition "Romania has Talent ", after which she succeeded to become vocal coach for one of the judges' team (Team Smiley) for "The Voice of Romania", ever since its very first season.

Trio Dream, has performed in numerous concerts, both in Romania and international. The group is known for their original and unique way to cover songs from different artists and genres. Their repertoire includes: jazz, pop, swing, ballads, r 'n b, funk, rock and roll, latino, funk etc.

Their great musical experience, allows them to take part in any kind of events, promising an unforgettable and quality time.

Their motto is: "Close your eyes and Trio Dream"
